What's not to like about one of Perth's finest areas with; schools, scenery, safe streets and proximity to the Swan River keeping Applecross as popular as ever with families and professionals.

Why Applecross

A beautiful riverside suburb only 9km from the CBD, Applecross is known for its affluent homes and established, tree-lined streets. On top of this, the welcoming feel and simple convenience makes Applecross a great place for established couples, professionals and families.

Accessible Location

Applecross lies on the edge of the Swan River just 9km from the city and a short drive from the historical port of Fremantle. Canning Highway borders one side of the suburb making anywhere further afield accessible by car and multiple transport links add to the convenience the suburb provides.

Wonderful Environment

Applecross provides a unique urban environment with a suburban charm that's home to numerous parks, reserves, large family homes and modern luxury properties. It's well known for its proximity to the Swan River, safe streets, pleasant scenery and a quiet atmosphere.

The Finest Facilities

Applecross is rich in modern amenities and facilities including: The Raffles Hotel, South of Perth Yacht Club, Applecross Jetty, Applecross Primary School, Saint Benedict's School and Tivoli Theatre as well as many shops and food and dining options.
